OR email lmccormick@mercy.com or phone Lisa McCormick 513.686.5422

Alex Herrlein, Reference Librarian and Office Manager, will be our host.

We will have the opportunity view the unique book, Altered States, which details “the world’s greatest private collection related to the subjects of drugs, sex, magic, and rock and roll. A library of more than 50,000 items, it contained everything from rare manuscripts and photos to posters, bottles, letters, opium pipes, and pinball machines.”

And enjoy the exhibit: Phar’-ma-cog-no-sy Illustrated: A History of Natural Pharmaceuticals takes you on a journey through the world of natural pharmaceuticals, displaying artifacts, archives, and equipment utilized in manufacturing. The exhibition features modern medical illustrations, vintage botanical art and specimens of medicinal plants. <https://lloydlibrary.org/exhibits/>

Limited free parking is available in the Lloyd Library parking lot between the library and the Fire Museum, accessible from Court Street. Street parking is also available. A commercial parking lot on Plum Street across the street from the library is also an option.
